An individual, whose name we suppress—believing his statement to be true—was tried in the Police Court, yesterday, on a charge of disorderly conduct. He stated to the Court that he was a resident of Chicago; that he came to this city some days since to seek employment at laying brick; that he was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Chicago, and previous to leaving home had taken his letter from the church, but on arriving in this city he failed to deposit it; that he formed associations here which led him astray; that he got drunk, and that while in that state he did, he knew not what. He wept bitterly and begged hard to be let off-not so much for his own sake as for the feelings of his wife and two little children, who were in Chicago, and depending on his labor for support. He was discharged by the Court and promised to do better. What a lesson is and promised to do better. What contained in this man's statement.

A REPRESENTATIVE MAN .- Among the celebrities who go abroad, the practical gardener is the man of worth for properly observing, and availing us who stay at home with the im-provements noticed while abroad. Commend us, then, to the producer; to the honey-bee which goes to foreign fields, to the flower gardens far away, and returns laden with honey for the hive at home. Mr. John Sayers, Chair-man of the Council of the Cincinnati Horticultural Society, is about to sail to Europe, and will in a few months return, profited by the experience of his visits as a gardener. The society declined to accept his resignation, ten-dered on Saturday last. Mr. J. S. Cook is to act as Chairman pro tem.

SCHOOL CENSUS.-The enumeration of pupils of schoolage within the city limits is to be intrusted to the following named census-takers, who are requested to meet the Superintendent of Schools at his office this morning at nine o'clock, viz: District 1, Francis Bagge; 2, James Parker, Jr.; 3, John H. Hallam; 4, George C. Speegel; 5, Ed. W. Hedges; 6, Richard Ayres; 7, Robert F. Adams; 8, Stephen L. Massey; 9, Hermann H. Raschig; C. G. A. Willey: 11, Charles F. Wiemar. 12, Samuel L. Haydon; 15, C. L. Neal. Mt. Auburn, James C. Horton. The compensation is one and-a-half cents for name of each child returned.

FUNNY MAN ABOUT .- Just read the following from yesterday's Times: "Why is the PENNY PRESS like an unfledged bird? Because it ories cheep! (cheap) and is called well, (Caldwell.)

"Why does the Democratic party love Douglas? Because a "little Dug" is better than no

The author of the above should be provided with a season ticket to the Widows' Home, or becompelled to ride the Gibson House terrapin three times around the Cincinnati Trotting Park standing on his head. Give him a little cold "wit"-als!

John Finsey is a stranger in the city, and not used to city ways. John was ar-raigned before Mayor Bishop yesterday and plead guilty to the charge of being drunk. He looked upon the whole matter as a rich joke, and informed the court that it was his first appearance in the Police Court, and his second trip to the city; and if His Honor would just let him off this time he would never get drunk again. He was discharged on payment of costs, and left the court-room highly pleased. He took particular pains to inform His Honor that be believed him a "gintleman and a nobleman.'

me One of the most accommodating 'Squires, perhaps, in this city is J. J. McFall. A bill was presented him yesterday for $14 50. The 'Squire said it was out of his power to pay it at present. The claimant threatened to sue Souire John had no objections, and offered to try the case himself. All parties were agreed, and the case was set for day after to-morrow, (Thursday) at nine o'ctock, when 'Squire John will deal with himself according to the law, and, we presume, the custom of his Court.

Mr. Frederick Pheiffer has leased for a term of years Frey's Hotel, situated on Main-street, near the canal. Our friend Dr. A. Alexander, for some time past local editor of the daily Volkefround, presides at the Clerk's desk. A first-class German hotel is much desired in this city, and we doubt not but that Frey's Hotel is now in proper hands to make it such.

mer Notwithstanding the impression that M'ile Estelle Esmonde could not be induced to appear at a ten-cent show, we had the pleasure of witnessing her first appearance in this city, at the Palace Garden, last evening. INKLINGS.

Frank Southall-the notorious Frank, of famous Bucktown-was brought before the Police Court, yesterday, upon three charges of assault and battery. Frank, when asked if guilty, replied that he was, inasmuch as the officers would swear to enough to convict him. He was sent to the County Jail ten days on

Two men, named Weaver and Decker, charged Philip Bense, in the Police Court, yes-terday, with disorderly conduct. Bense was acquitted, when he charged Weaver and Decker with assault and battery. They were found guilty and fined $10 and costs each.

George Truss and John Leary were arrested yesterday, charged with robbing the money drawer of a groceryman in the Eighth Ward. They will be tried to-day.

A woman named Bridget McCarty, for as-assulting Mrs. Finess—her sister-in law— was committed to the City Prison yesterday for the term of ten days.

The charge of burglary against Leater Long was dismissed in the Police Court seaterday. Chorge Finley, one of the Clark gang of ju-Venile pickpockets, was sent to the City Prison by the Police Judge yesterday for the term of entity days. He was proven as a vagrant.

was sent to his old quarters in the City Prison yesterday for sixty days. The charge against Jones was disorderly conduct. A splendid "ruh" was made at a billiard saloon the other evening, by a promising young

AMUSEMENTS.

Wood's Theater.—A large house was present last night to witness the IStar Sisters, Helen and Lucille, in Sayan is Panisand Our Female American's Ocsis. They are truly actresses of merit, and we admit the performance of Miss Lucille as his Satemia Majesty spall to any player in that particular role. Miss Helen in the "Female Con in" was, as heretofore, an excellent artistic effort. To night will be presented the drawn entitled Environmental Willer Lavers Maleran will be the control the drawn entitled Environmental Control of the Darville. The afterpiece is Our Female Con Halencan Lovale. Great preparations are being made for the DERLY of Miss Marios H. Urage, a young lady handsone in appearance, of a refined nature and cuit vated mind. With these merits in her favor, we doubt not the success of the fair beautrants. The play selected for the occasion, which will take place on Tuesday evening next, is Loval, in which Miss Crape will attempt the "Counters." We wish the fair lady success in hor first appearance. COVINGTON NEWS.

(Any communications from our friends will be thankfully received. Address "Press Reporter," Box 21 Covington, Ky.]

CIRCUIT COURT.—This tribunal commenced its session yesterday morning, Judge Moore presiding. The great feature of the day was the charge to the firand Jury. His Honor was forcible, dwelling upon the general duty of grand jurors to search out criminals and bring them to justice. Then refering to such crimes as require a special charge, and particularly gambling, be remarked with emphasis upon its immorably. He required the Grand Jury to make diligent inquiry, in order to ascertain not only who were actual gamblers, but such persons as kept gambling-houses and gambling-tables. Betting on elections was characterized as one of the worst features of gaming, because it was not only a matter of hazard, but its tendency was to corrupt electors. Persons who bet will be led to strain every merce, and try every means, even though dishonest, to carry their point that they may win. The charge was an able one, and was listened to with great attention, not only by the jurors, but by the bar and spectators. If crime is not punished in [this county it will not be the fault of the Judge. Crecur Court .- This tribunal commenced

COUNTY COURT .- The regular session of the County Court was held yesterday. No business of importance was transacted.

Policy Court.—As a insually the case on Mondays, the Police Court had a good amount of business before it peterday moralin. Miranda Johns, who thought Mayor Hawkins of Sewport, somewhat hard on her, removed to this city, but for getting to keep ober, and demean herself orderly, was sent to just for twente days on bread and water for vagrancy. John Ratsford, for drunkenness, was fined $2.75. George Figher, for the offense, fined $4.00 William Chambers, for displaying conduct and "making night hideous," had $12. John Thornton, for reising a false above of fire, and other disorderly actions, was fined $12.10.

The dust in many of the streets is almost intelerable. The raises did a little good, but the effect is hardly perceivable now. A partion of the treets are well approxied, and it is pleasant to travel on them. Why not sprinkle Short street to the river?
